A key focus will be on writing effective research and argumentative essays and developing strong presentation skills. Students will be expected to complete a significant amount of reading, research and writing outside of the classroom in order to meet the requirements of the course. (5 weeks, 40 hrs.)

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Demonstrate advanced critical thinking skills
- Demonstrate the use of a variety of reading strategies to understand text
- Read critically, find information, comment on, and summarize texts
- Demonstrate the ability to apply the following organizational essay strategies: Reflective, Argumentative, Process, Descriptive, Comparison and Contrast
- Understand how to do research and citation of references according to APA and apply to the writing of a comprehensive research paper
- Learn how to use data bases (ProQuest, Gale) to support term papers

- Understand the difference between writing essays and reports
- Correctly use Microsoft Word 2010 to type a term paper

Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

ASSIGNMENTS – All assignments must be completed and handed in order to meet the requirements of English 113. All assignments are to be typed according to APA format. You may be required to send your completed assignments by email to the facilitator. This is a common practice in our professional programs.

Please note that should there be any evidence of plagiarism, you will be assigned a mark of “0.” As we are here to help you to learn how not to plagiarize, you may be given the opportunity to rewrite the paper until you can see how a paper looks that does not contain plagiarism. Your mark will be an average of the marks attained throughout the efforts to rewrite the paper without calculating in the “0.” The facilitator will determine how many times an individual must write the paper in order to score an acceptable grade above “0.”

Student Preparation and Engagement – Value 5%
