Course Outline

Semester Dates: May 22, 2017 to June 24, 2017

Please note that when a holiday falls during the week, your class will be rescheduled for the Friday of that week. Students are required to make arrangements to be present at the rescheduled class.

Facilitator: David Getiro, MA

Email: davidg@columbia.ab.ca

Class Time: 8:30 am – 5:30 pm (Sat.)

Room: 4-159

Credit: 3

Prerequisite: HSPD110

Note: It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator. Please note that when a holiday falls during the week, your class will be rescheduled for the Friday of that week. Students are required to make arrangements to be present at the rescheduled class.

Course Description:

This course offers the student an opportunity to explore key topics and issues focusing on their area of specialization. Primary and secondary research will be used to prepare a major project on the topic/topics of choice.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

1. Define, explain, and describe key terms, concepts, theories, ideologies and models.
2. Apply and critically analyze ethics related to your profession.
3. Demonstrate professional and personal growth in human services through self-assessment activities.
4. Summarize the process of how social welfare policies are formalized, implemented, and evaluated.
5. Understand how Canada's Social Union Framework Agreement forms a foundation for agreed-upon principles and commitments for pan-Canadian social welfare developments. Apply these principles to current programs in Alberta.
6. Be able to articulate how the three main service sectors deliver social welfare programs to Canadians.
7. Articulate an understanding of Social Agencies for delivering social welfare resources to people in need through strategic and operational frameworks.
8. Understand the social welfare system and critically assess its issues, roles, approaches, initiatives and challenges.
9. Discuss the role of professional and non-professional service providers within the social welfare provision.
10. Identify the strategies used to promote change in individuals, families, small groups, organizations and in the community.
11. Summarize a human services approach to working with individuals experiencing poverty, unemployment, and other associated challenges.
12. Identify and discuss how children and families are affected by parenting style, family type, and family violence.
13. Describe how human services workers work with diverse populations such as seniors, Aboriginal Canadians, immigrants, and individuals with disabilities,

Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

Homework Assignment Due for the First Class:

1. Read chapters one and two of your text, V Chappell, R. (2014). Social welfare in the Canadian system (5th ed.).
2. As a result of your reading assignment, write down at least three (3) questions that you would find beneficial to discuss in class.
3. Prepare for a test on the assigned readings.
4. Read this course outline and be prepared to discuss in class.

Evaluation - Assessment of Student Performance:

The final grade in the course will be based on the following elements. Wherever possible facilitators will use rubrics to assess your performance and offer feedback.

Title of Assignment/Examination	Due Date	Weight
Reflective Paper #1	Class 5	20%
Daily Tests	Class 1 - 8	20%
Daily Summary Activity Assignment	Every Class	10%
Reflective Paper # 2	Class 9	20%
Final exam - Project	Class 10	30%

Please note that all homework and assignments are due at the beginning of each class.

Grading:

Grades for each component will be added together at the end of the semester. The final total will be translated to the Columbia College's 4.0 grading scale as follows:

Marking and Grading Conversion:

Description	Letter Grade	Grade Points	Percentage Scale
Excellent	A+	4.0	100	95
	A	4.0	94	90
	A-	3.7	89	85
Good	B+	3.3	84	80
	B	3.0	79	75
	B-	2.7	74	70
Satisfactory	C+	2.3	69	65
	C	2.0	64	60
	C-	1.7	59	55
Poor	D	1.0	54	50
Failure	F	0.0	49	0

Please note that to pass this course you must earn at least a "D" (a minimal pass).

Submission and Completion of Assignments:

You are expected to submit assignments by the due date. Any late assignments may be assessed a marking penalty of 5% per day. If you are unable to submit an assignment on the due date, you must request an extension before the due date by filling out an Application for Assignment Extension form (SSPP-F012) that is to be submitted to the Department Chair for approval. This form is available on Columbia's website, Bldg. 802 – Main Office and from Department Chairs.

Requesting an Examination Deferral:

If you are requesting an exam to be deferred, you must submit an Application for Deferred Examinations form (SSPP-F012) to the Department Chair within 48 hours of the missed examination date and time. Applications for deferred examinations will only be considered due to medical or personal emergency. A medical certificate or other appropriate documentation may be required. This form is available on Columbia's website, Bldg. 802-Main Office and from Department Chairs.

Attendance Requirements:

Columbia College believes that students are committed to their program and learning experiences. However, it is understood that there are times when students may be absent. Any absences can be viewed as a potentially serious disruption of the learning process and necessary achievement of the learning objectives. Being late is also considered unacceptable as it interferes with the learning opportunities of others. Unavoidable absences or lateness must be reported to the course facilitator in advance. Please refer to Columbia College's Attendance Policy and Regulations (ADM-P151) for detailed information on Attendance Requirements.

Academic Integrity:

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from Columbia College.

There is no tolerance for academic dishonesty and any student caught plagiarizing is subject to serious sanctions as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229). Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this policy and avoid any behavior that could possibly be seen as cheating, plagiarizing, misrepresenting, or putting into question the integrity of one's academic work.

Student Conduct:

It is the responsibility of each student to uphold the expectations and responsibilities outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229), Columbia College's Commitment to Human Rights and Diversity Policy, and any additional requirements established by your program.

Generally, each student will:

- be respectful and courteous toward others;
- demonstrate appropriate and supportive communication skills, and coach, assist, advise and otherwise support other students in their studies;
- manage any personal stress and conflict in a positive and resourceful manner, and assist others to do the same;
- be dressed in a manner appropriate for their workplace or learning environment, as established by the program;
- conduct themselves in a professional manner with regard to their communication with others and their behavior in class;
- conduct themselves with academic integrity in all of their learning activities, tests, exams, and assignments
- keep up with day-to-day classroom and course expectations.

Important Dates:

Description	Date
Last to add/drop courses	5 school operating days from the start of the semester OR before the third scheduled class, whichever is greater
Last day to withdraw without academic penalty	50% or less of the semester has been completed
Final Examination	A final exam may take many formats. If a final exam is scheduled, it will be taken in an assigned room under the supervision of a Test Proctor. Students must be on time as they will not be permitted to enter once the exam has started. Exam schedules are available in each building on a bulletin board, as well as online at www.columbia.ab.ca/exams . It is the student's responsibility to check this exam posting.

Appeals:

Please refer to the Student Appeal Policy (ADM-P177).

Students with Temporary or Permanent Disabilities or Medical Condition:

Students with temporary or permanent disabilities or medical condition may apply for accommodations. To be considered for an accommodation, a student must register with Columbia College's Accessibility Services by making an appointment with an Accessibility Services Advisor – Main Office – Bldg. 802 or emailing accessibilityservices@columbia.ab.ca. The Department Chair or facilitator is not able to provide you with any accommodations without you taking this step. Please refer to Columbia College's website to review the Accommodation Policy and Handbook (ADM-P188).

Student Support:

Students should be aware that Life Coaching, Career and Accessibility Services, and Student Support Services (i.e. tutoring, academic strategists, etc.) are provided by Columbia College. Inquire how to request these services at the Main Office in building 802. It is the student's responsibility to discuss their specific learning needs with the appropriate service provider.

Class Schedule/Overview:

Please note that this schedule is subject to change. Any changes or cancellations will be emailed to you. It is your responsibility to check the email address you have given to the school on a daily basis for any messages from the Department Chair/designate, facilitator or College Administration. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator.

Appendix 1 Assignment Outlines

Daily Tests

Due Date: Each class from classes 1 through 8.

Weight: 20%

Students will be expected to read the assigned chapters in the text and other assigned readings and be prepared to write a graded test based on these reading assignments.

Reflective Paper #1

Due: Class 5

Weight: 20%

“Economic deprivation – lack of income — is a standard feature of most definitions of poverty. But this in itself does not take account of the myriad of social, cultural and political aspects of the phenomenon. Poverty is not only a deprivation of economic or material resources but a violation of human dignity.” – Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights

Write a reflective paper of a minimum of 1000 words that examines the above statement and shows your understanding of its meaning in today's society. Support your thoughts by providing information about poverty in Calgary.

Reflective Paper

Due: Class 9

Weight: 20%

Based on the lessons that you have received since class 1 and your text (Social Welfare in Canadian Society), name a social welfare policy that affects your practice in your specialization, review the policy and summarize its main points, explain why you chose this policy, and how does it affect your practice; what is good about this policy and what are the challenges of this policy and how to address them. Complete this reflective paper of 1000 - 1200 words covering: Introduction, Main Body, Summary and Conclusion. You are required to write this paper in an APA format. Use four or more academic references (from ProQuest or Gale) to support your answer. Students will be evaluated according to the attached Reflective Paper Rubric.

Presentation

Due date: Class 9

Weight: 10%

Each student will make a 10- to 15-minute PowerPoint presentation on the relevant findings from his or her reflective papers or from a topic of choice related to the course, but it must be pre-approved by the facilitator. Students are to be prepared to respond to questions from class members. Students will be individually evaluated according to the attached rubric: Oral Presentation Rubric.

Daily Summary Assignment

Due Date: Daily (at the conclusion of the class; 1 through 8)

Weight: 10%

Students will be expected to do a reflective response that is centred on what was discussed and learned during the class. This will be done during the last 30 minutes of the class. If you are absent, you will receive a “zero”.

Final Exam - Take-Home
Due Date: Class 10
Weight: 30%

You are required to write an essay (take-home exam) that will demonstrate your understanding and competency of your chosen career/specialization within the social welfare system. Your paper will be minimum of 1200 words but not more than 1500 words, and you will use APA citation and formatting. Support your ideas with at least 5 references from sources like ProQuest and Gale, besides your text.

The following topics must be covered in your paper:

- Name the population you have chosen to work with and why?
- Describe challenging issues or problems when working with this population; please back up your answers with academic references.
- What type of setting (organizations) and area of practice (e.g., clinical, law, newcomers, settlement, children, women, violence, disability services, education or community development, etc.) applies best to the setting and population you have chosen to work with? Why have you chosen this population? What agencies serve this population (provide a reference of at least 10 agencies) and explain what service each agency provides.
- Describe and explain your roles, and theoretical methodology and philosophy you would apply when working with your chosen population (clientele).
- Name two professional ethics that are relevant to you in this work and how would you apply them in your work? Explain how you chose these ethics. What was the source?

Email your paper to your facilitator. It is due by 11:59 p.m. on the due date. It is your responsibility to ensure that the facilitator has received your paper. You will be evaluated by the General Essay Rubric attached.
